

APABA-DC 2023-2024 BOARD OF DIRECTORS
Officer Biographies

President: Minsuk Han

Minsuk Han is a partner at Kellogg, Hansen, Todd, Figel & Frederick, PLLC. Minsuk represents plaintiffs and defendants in trial and appellate courts and arbitration, as well as before federal agencies. He has particular experience with complex commercial disputes, securities investigations and litigation, antitrust and intellectual property law, and attorney malpractice matters. Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Han served as a law clerk to the Honorable Andrew J. Kleinfeld on the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Minsuk is a graduate of Cornell Law School and Seoul National University Business School. Minsuk serves on the Rules of Professional Conduct Review Committee of the District of Columbia Bar. He has previously served on the Board of Directors of the Asian Pacific American Bar Association Educational Fund as President (2018-2019) and Vice President (2017-2018).

President-Elect: Angeline Chen

Angeline G. Chen serves as General Counsel and Chief Administrative Officer for MarkLogic Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of Progress Software Corporation. Angie has worked in multiple industries including aerospace and defense, manufacturing, and industrials, and is recognized for her expertise in national security, cyber, risk management, governance, regulatory compliance, technology law, and mergers and acquisitions. She also serves on the board of directors of Stantec, Inc. She has taught a course in technology, terrorism and national security law at Antonin Scalia Law School and served as an Executive-in-Residence and a professor of organizational behavior management for the University of Maryland Global Campus's MBA program. Angie earned her B.A. and law degrees from Villanova University, an LL.M from Georgetown University Law Center, and an MBA from the University of Maryland. She is currently pursuing a Master of Science degree in Cybersecurity at Brown University.

Immediate Past President: Yifang Zhao

Yifang Zhao is a corporate counsel in the U.S. Retail legal team at Amazon, where she supports core category teams including Business, Industrial & Scientific Supplies and a number of key regulatory compliance initiatives for Amazon's online store. Prior to joining Amazon, she was a litigator at Haynes & Boone focusing on intellectual property and insurance coverage litigation. Her pre-law school life includes working as a research scientist at Monsanto, living in Japan, and volunteering in Tibet. Yifang earned her J.D. and B.A. in chemistry and psychology from Washington University in St. Louis.

Vice President for Communications: Alicia Loh

Alicia Loh is an attorney at the Federal Trade Commission in the Technology Enforcement Division. She was formerly an associate at Steptoe & Johnson LLP in the Internet, Telecom & Media group, where she advised telecommunications providers, satellite operators, leading internet providers, and media companies on a variety of regulatory, policy, transactional, and litigation matters. She also aided presidential appointees through the vetting process. Alicia earned her J.D. from Harvard Law School and B.A. in Sociology and B.S. in Information Systems from the University of Maryland, College Park. She has previously served on APABA-DC's Board of Directors as Assistant Vice President of Community Affairs. Alicia is serving in her personal capacity.

Vice President for Program: Yifan Wang

Yifan Wang is a trial attorney at the Department of Justice, Civil Fraud Section. Before that, she was an associate for seven years at Williams & Connolly LLP, where she practiced complex commercial litigation and government investigations. While at the firm, Yifan was seconded to the Maryland Office of the Public Defender for Prince George's County, where she tried multiple cases in district and circuit court. Yifan graduated from Cornell Law School and Duke University. She served on the Board of Directors of the Asian Pacific American Bar Association Educational Fund (AEF) from 2018 to 2020. Yifan is serving in her personal capacity.

Vice President for Community Affairs: William Xu

Will Xu is a Judge Advocate (JAG) with the United States Navy, and recently returned from an 18-month tour in the Middle-East. He currently serves as a defense attorney before the Military Commissions in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. He also as an adjunct professor at the United States Naval Academy. Prior to commissioning with the Navy, Will served as a public defender in Brooklyn, and as a legal fellow with the international humanitarian law unit of the American Red Cross. Will graduated from American University Washington College of Law. Will has previously served on the boards of several non-profits, including the Conference on Asian Pacific American Leadership, and Odanadi US, which works with survivors of human trafficking in India. Will is serving in his personal capacity.

Vice President for Education: David Yin

David Yin is a counsel at Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale & Dorr LLP. David represents leading technology, life sciences, and medical device companies in high stakes litigation matters. His practice focuses on complex patent and trade secret litigation in federal district courts, before administrative agencies, and at the appellate level. Previously, he served as a law clerk to the Honorable Timothy B. Dyk on the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. He served on the board of the Asian Pacific American Bar Association Educational Fund (AEF) as the treasurer (2017-2018) and as a director (2018-2019). David received his B.A. from Columbia University and his J.D. from NYU School of Law.

Vice President for Membership: Evelyn Riley

Evelyn Riley is counsel at Cozen O'Connor. Evelyn has expertise in handling complex commercial disputes in all stages of civil litigation in both state and federal courts. She represents corporate and individual clients in a broad range of areas, including privacy, product liability, consumer protection, trade secrets, professional liability, and premises liability in high exposure matters. Evelyn is co-chair of Cozen's Asian Americans Resource Group and a steering committee member of the firm's Women's Initiative. Evelyn earned her bachelor's degree and law degree from Beijing Foreign Studies University in Beijing, China. Evelyn earned her LL.M. in intellectual property from The George Washington University Law School. Born and raised in Wuhan, China, Evelyn is fluent in both English and Chinese.

Secretary: Charles Kuo

Charles Kuo is an environmental associate at McGuireWoods. Prior to pursuing law, Charles spent five years as an environmental engineer where he specialized in air and water permitting, compliance, auditing, and modeling. Charles also spent five years as a chemist at an oil and gas plant in Texas. He earned his B.S. in chemistry from York University, master of civil engineering from Texas A&M University, and his J.D. from Vermont Law and Graduate School. While in law school, Charles served as a legal intern at the District Court of Vermont and as a research associate for the U.S. Asia Partnership for Environmental Law.

Treasurer: Wenxi Li

Wenxi Li is a health care regulatory associate at DLA Piper's Washington DC office where her practice focuses on HIPAA, digital health, and telemedicine regulatory and transactional matters. Wenxi holds a J.D. from American University Washington College of Law and a B.A. from Hamilton College. She has been involved with APABA-DC in various capacities and served on the Board of Directors of the Asian Pacific American Bar Association Educational Fund (AEF) from 2016 to 2018.